Sponsor A Pet

Do you have all the pets you can handle but still want to help homeless animals? Why not sponsor a pet at Free To Live?

You can sponsor a dog or cat for $275.65, the average cost of admitting an animal to the sanctuary. We will send you photos and information about your sponsored dog or cat and the share with you the great news when it is adopted.

Thanks in part to our sponsorship program, Free To Live has been able to increase its population from about 235 animals to more than 330. This means a lot more animals have been rescued. It also means we're able to provide potential adopters with an even better selection.
